

« INTERVENANT AU FORUM DES PEID »

► JEUDI 26 MARS 2026 ◀

DR. DIEUDONNE NSADISA FAKA

Dr. Dieudonne Nsadisa Faka is holding a PhD degree in Oceanography main subject in hydrometeorology and climate risk management. Dr. Faka has a combined background in academic professional and international consultancy with more than 30 years' experience in climate and sustainable development. Lecturer at the Universities, supervisor of PhD and Master's thesis in biodiversity and climate change. Today climate expert of private company CESY on the tool development for mainstreaming climate to policy and strategies.

Former Team Leader for the last five years for EU – ACP Programme on climate and related applications programme (ClimSA) under 11th European Development Funds (EDF) framework, at OACPS Secretariat in Brussels Belgium. Before joining the OACPS Secretariat's programme, Dr Faka worked as a Climate Expert and Coordinator of the Southern African Development Community (SADC) Climate Services Centre in Gaborone, Botswana.

He has contributed on the climate finances mobilization and managed over 10 projects on climate services and sustainable development funded by various international donors such as World Bank, UN agencies (UNEP, UNDP, UNFCCC), EC/EU and African Development Bank. He had been appointed as Principal Investigator (PI) of the EU/ESA programme on the use of satellite's earth observations to assess water resources in the Congo Basin using GIS tools.

National and international consultant with UNEP to the development of the National Action Plan (NAP) for the Guinea Current component of the Global Coastal and Marine Ecosystem (GCLME) for the protection of coastal and marine ecosystems for the sustainable development of the Congolese coastal zone, and to organise the NAP validation workshop for the Ministry of the Environment and Natural Resources.

With UNDP on the development of project document for the natural risk management programme for the DRC; Also, on the development of a business plan for the creation of a Project monitoring and evaluation mechanism. Undertaking the final evaluation of projects. Member of the national committee on national communication to the United Nations Convention on Climate Change for the greenhouse gaze inventory.

Expert with World Bank in DRC for the development of an information flow management system and an operational monitoring plan for planned activities of PNDRR; Assessing the technical performance of the provincial offices and community branches.

Consultant with World Meteorological Organization (WMO) for the development of multi-criteria analysis tools and decision support for climate mainstreaming in development, for the SADC region.

